THERESE HESSION HEAD COACH

25TH SEASON
SOUTHERN METHODIST '79

Therese Hession has served as head women's golf coach at The Ohio State University for the past 24 seasons, crafting a storied legacy in Buckeye lore. The Indianapolis native has built the strong OSU golf tradition to even greater heights. Hession has led Ohio State to nine Big Ten Championships, including back-to-back in 2014-15 and six of the last 14. Her success reaches a national level as well, advancing to the NCAA Regionals in 22 of the last 24 years (21 straight), and making 14 NCAA Championships appearances.

Hession's efforts and impressive results have not gone unnoticed. She was inducted into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in the Class of 2015 and has been named the National Coach of the Year twice (2014 by Golfweek and 1997 by the National Golf Coaches Association). She's been tabbed as Big Ten Coach of the Year on seven occasions (1993, 1997, 1999, 2002, 2003, 2005, 2014).

Student-athletes have earned many prestigious awards on the course and in the classroom under the tutelage of Hession. During her tenure, Buckeye golfers have been honored with 11 All-American and 58 All-Big Ten selections, six Big Ten Player of the Year and seven Big Ten Freshman of the Year laurels. A strong proponent of education, Hession's student-athletes have racked up academic awards as well. She has mentored 32 NGCA Scholar All-Americans, 151 OSU Scholar-Athletes and a total of 103 Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

Hession, a former president of the NCGA, was inducted into its Hall of Fame in 2004. That organization also tabbed her as a Region Coach of the Year three straight seasons (1996-98), the 2010 Gladys Palmer Meritorious Service Award and 2005 Founders Award recipient.

The 2014-15 Buckeyes were crowned champions of the Big Ten for the second straight season and conference-best 13th time since 1982 (nine during the Hession Era). The latter of back-to-back B1G titles was a monumental victory, marking the 100th tournament title in program history. Hession has been at the helm for 45 of the 100 all-time tournament triumphs.

In 2013-14, Hession directed Ohio State to a share of seventh place at the NCAA Championships (third-highest NCAA finish in school history) with a trio of freshmen atop the lineup. Her second career National Coach of the Year campaign also included a school-record overall season scoring average of 296.64 strokes, powered by a three-round total of 838 at the Westbrook Spring Invitational to shatter the program's 54-hole record previously set in May 2005 by 18 strokes. The '13-14 Buckeyes continued to rewrite the record books in the postseason as the team's 1,158-stroke total at the NCAA Championships is also an all-time OSU mark, the best 72-hole score ever posted by the Buckeyes. Hession's charges won three spring tournaments, including a co-Big Ten Championship. All this from a team ranked outside the top-30 in the Golfweek preseason rankings.

The Buckeyes enjoyed perhaps their best season in school history in 2002-03. Hession guided the team to fourth place at the NCAA championships, the highest finish in the program's history. In addition, Ohio State captured its eighth overall and second-consecutive Big Ten championship. Three Buckeyes were honored with First Team All-Big Ten selections and Hession was named the conference's coach of the year. The season also marked the first time in school history Ohio State boasted two All-Americans in one season in Lindsay Knowlton and Kristen White.

Hession, a former LPGA Tour professional, became the seventh head coach in the program's history in 1991. In her inaugural season, she led the Buckeyes to a fourth-place finish in the Big Ten championships--three places better than the previous year. In just her second season, Hession struck gold, winning five regular season tournaments and claiming the 1993 conference title, Ohio State's first championship since 1988. The Buckeyes would go on to place fifth at the NCAA East Regional, advancing them to their first NCAA Championship appearance in five years.

A full-time professional golfer for 11 years, Hession competed in more than 250 LPGA tournaments during her illustrious career. She was among the Top 150 in all-time LPGA career money-winners when she concluded her career in 1991. Hession also willingly gave her time to charity during her playing career, participating in more than 150 pro-celebrity charitable events.

As a collegiate player for Southern Methodist University, Hession led the Mustangs to a national championship in 1979 while earning All-America laurels. She graduated with honors, acquiring a bachelor's degree in business administration. In January of 1980, after just three months on the Women's Professional Golf Tour, she earned her LPGA tour card.

An Indianapolis native, Hession is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Golf Ministry advisory staff. An avid participant in charity programs, she was the recipient of the 1989 LPGA Tour Samaritan Award.

Lisa Strom returned to Ohio State as assistant coach in April 2011 and brought 10 years of professional golf experience to the squad as well as four years as a collegiate golfer for the Buckeyes. Strom works on a large capacity for Ohio State, aiding in recruiting, traveling, and working with the student-athletes on all aspects of their games.

Strom's recruiting prowess was highlighted in 2013-14 as the team was led by a trio of freshmen. All three frosh earned All-Big Ten honors (Porvasnik and Brake on First Team; Pogacar on Second Team) while Porvasnik was named both the BIG Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year after capturing medalist honors in the conference championships. Strom's bond with Porvasnik extended into the 2014 U.S. Women's Open with Strom acting as Porvasnik's caddie in the LPGA's oldest major championship.

Strom turned pro in August of 2000 and competed in more than 50 LPGA sponsored events as a member of the LPGA Tour (2003, 2007-2010). She earned her best career finish in 2007 when she finished tied for 13th at the Navistar LPGA Classic. Strom carded a career-low 67 on two occasions in 2009 with the first coming in the second round of the LPGA State Farm Classic and the next in the opening round of the Navistar LPGA Classic.

Aside from joining the Tour, Strom also competed on the Futures Tour for seven years. Her best finish came at the 2002 El Paso FUTURES Golf Classic where she finished second. WOMEN'S NATIONAL COLLEGIATE HISTORY MADE AT OHIO STATE

In 1940, Gladys Palmer was the head of the Health and Physical Education Department at The Ohio State University. She was a woman of tremendous vision for women's sports in general, but particularly for the game of golf. Meeting great resistance from many sides, she was determined to coordinate a women's national championship for golf. With the assistance of staff members, including Dr. Mary Yost, an outline for the formation of a national organization which would sponsor and control intercollegiate competition for women was compiled. The outcome of her efforts was the first national championship for all of women's collegiate sports, the 1941 Women's National Golf Championship on the OSU Scarlet Course.

Much credit for this first championship went to L.W. St. John, Director of Athletics, who completely supported Palmer and her staff. Each institution could be represented by a maximum of four players. Fees for the tournament were $5. This fee included transportation to and from the golf course and all green fees.

The national championship was held by various institutions until 1973 when the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) was formed. The AIAW conducted the National Championship through 1982 when dual championships were conducted. The final AIAW National Championship was hosted by Ohio State in 1982 and the first NCAA Championship was hosted that year at Stanford. The NCAA has conducted the annual championship since 1982.

OHIO STATE WOMEN'S NATIONAL COLLEGIATE TITLES: 1947, 1949, 1950, 1951, 1952

The teams consisted of two-person teams. The team winners were determined by the low two participant scores at the end of the first round of play.
